stepTHREE – Family on Mission

You’ll learn how to share the Gospel story and how you can live on mission with our church family.

YOUR STORY

Our TESTIMONY

Revelation 12:11

And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.

A testimony is not about going from bad to good, or even good to great, it's about going from death to life!

Romans 6:4

Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Story Workshop

"The universe is made up of stories not atoms."

- Poet Muriel Rukeyser

Clarity is KING .

Why Your Story is Worth Telling

God WANTS us to.

Acts 1:8

Mark 5:19

Mercy = not getting what you deserve

We are AMBASSADORS of heaven.

2 Corinthians 5:20 TPT

1 Peter 3:15

Our story is the BRIDGE to tell the greater story - God's story.

Colossians 1:21-22a TPT

What Makes a Great Story

A great story is AUTHENTIC .

We impress people with our strengths, but we CONNECT with people through our WEAKNESSES .

A great story focuses on TRANSFORMATION .

A great story makes Jesus the HERO .

2 Corinthians 4:7

3 Steps to Build Our Story

1. Consider & remember what your life was like BEFORE you knew Jesus.

Choose words that describe your thoughts, emotions, motivations or behavior while spiritually dead and separated from God.

2. Describe that DEATH TO LIFE moment.

What key situations or people helped lead you to the moment you surrendered your life to Jesus? Using a scripture will help you.

3. Describe your life now that you've been born again and are SPIRITUALLY ALIVE .

Avoid using religious words. How is your life different now in your attitude, behavior and relationships?

Wendy's Story

Beginning

Before I knew Jesus I was at a place in my 19 year old life that I began to ask myself questions like is this all there is to life? The fun of living for the weekend party scene was beginning to be not so fun, so while I was on campus one day, outside the library procrastinating and smoking a cigarette, a campus minister walked up to me.

As soon as I realized he was a minister, I felt really ashamed I was smoking in front of him. I never felt good about my smoking habit. But we started to talk and ... have you ever had a conversation with someone where you felt like something bigger was happening? I had the sense that God was at work in my heart.

Middle

The first question the minister asked me was, "do you think you will go to heaven when you die" and I thought for a minute realizing oh these are spiritual questions.

So I answered, "I hope so." Well, the next question he asked was, "why do you believe this?" Thinking as hard as I could I simply said, "hopefully the good things I've done in my life will outweigh the bad things." In other words... I thought my hope of heaven relied upon me.

To be honest, I WASN'T SO SURE that my good would outweigh my bad because I knew I was regretful of many of the choices I had made... WAY BEYOND smoking cigarettes. So trying to help me understand the gospel, the minister asked me, "how many lies would you have to tell in order for me to call you a liar?"

I thought about it and honestly answered, "I guess just one." Then he said, "so how many times would someone have to sin..." And everything got really slow at that point ... he didn't even have to finish the sentence. I GOT IT! I realized in that very moment that I was a sinner.

End

I had a sense like flipping through a deck of cards that my sins were too numerous to count. It was kind of like my life flashing before your eyes. That very night I went to a Bible discussion where I saw other students learning about God and I realized that it was possible to follow Jesus in college. And I read 2 Corinthians 6 and in this passage, God is saying there are some things we need to change when we desire to have a relationship with him, things like light and darkness don't go together in God's kingdom. This is where he asks us to come out of living in the worldly system and choose his ways. The best part is what he does next. He says he will make his home in us, he will embrace us and will be a true father to us and we will become his sons and daughters. My life literally flipped 180 degrees. I surrendered my life to God and put the full weight of my trust in Jesus to get to heaven. I was in darkness, then stepped into the light. My spirit was dead and now it had become alive. God did this for me and I'm now free and forgiven.

Story Tips

- Go share your story with friends and family!
- Keep the story less than 5 minutes.
- Ask open-ended questions.

Some examples are:

Do you have a story like this? Is there something preventing you from having a story like this? What would it look like to know and follow Jesus?

How God created us

Jeremiah 1:5

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.”

Psalms 139:13-14

¹³ For You formed my inward parts; You wove me in my mother’s womb. ¹⁴ I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

Spiritual Gifts

1 Peter 4:10

As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

Romans 12:4-6

⁴For just as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function, ⁵so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly.

Romans 12:6-8 NLT

Gift of Tongues:

1 Corinthians 14:3-4

But one who prophesies speaks to men for edification and exhortation and consolation. One who speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but one who prophesies edifies the church.

Jude 20

1 Corinthians 14:5

The GIFTS and the CALLING of God are irrevocable.

Romans 11:29

Our God-given gifts + Hearing and Obeying Jesus → Walking in our calling

Ephesians 2:10

Ephesians 4:11-12

¹¹ And He [Jesus] gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, ¹² for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ.

LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR PERSONALITY PROFILE

DISC is an acronym that stands for four main personality profiles: (D)ominance, (I)nfluence, (S)teadiness and (C)onscientiousness. This personality profile provides a common language people can use to better understand themselves and those they interact with—it raises self-awareness, improves teamwork and even helps to resolve conflict. There's not one "best" personality; each one has both strengths and challenges. The following will give you specific areas to focus on to help you work well with others.

"D" personalities are dominant, direct, task-oriented, decisive, organized, outgoing and outspoken. We are risk takers and problem solvers. We are more concerned with completing tasks and winning than we are with gaining approval from people. Though this internal drive tends to make us insensitive to those around us, "D"s are not afraid to challenge the status quo, and we thrive when it comes to developing new things. We need discipline to excel, and respond to direct confrontation. Our greatest fear is to be taken advantage of, and even despite our possible weaknesses—which include an aversion to routine, a tendency to overstep authority, an argumentative nature, and a habit of taking on too much—we place a high value on time and use our innovative thinking to accomplish difficult tasks and conquer challenges. As you embrace these strengths, also make sure to:

- Listen attentively to others.
- Support other team members.
- Invest in personal relationships.
- Balance controlling and domineering tendencies.
- Value the opinions, feelings and desires of others.

"I" personalities are influential, witty, easygoing, outgoing and people-oriented. We are inspiring and impressive. Enthusiastic, optimistic, impulsive, and emotional—we tend to be creative problem solvers and excellent encouragers. We often have a large number of friends, but we can become more concerned with approval and popularity than with getting results. Our greatest fear is rejection, but we thrive when it comes to motivating others. Our positive sense of humor helps us negotiate conflicts. Though we can be inattentive to details and poor listeners, we can be great peacemakers and effective teammates when we control our feelings and minimize our urge to entertain and be the center of attention. We value lots of human touch and connection. As you embrace these strengths, also make sure to:

- Be aware of tasks that need to be accomplished.
- Balance your emotions, words, and actions.
- Remember to consider details and facts.
- Slow down your pace for others when necessary.
- Listen attentively to others instead of only talking.
- Choose thoughtful decision-making over impulsive decision-making.

“S” personalities are steady, stable, analytical, introverted and people-oriented. We are more reserved, do not like change, and thrive in secure, non-threatening environments. We are often friendly and understanding as well as good listeners and loyal workers who are happy doing the same job consistently. With an incredible ability to forgive, reliable and dependable “S”s tend to make the best friends. Our greatest fear, however, is loss of security, and our possible weaknesses naturally include not only resistance to change, but also difficulty adjusting to it. We can also be too sensitive to criticism and unable to establish priorities. In order to avoid being taken advantage of, we need to be stronger and learn how to say “no.” We also like to avoid the limelight, but when given an opportunity to genuinely help others, we will gladly rise to the occasion. We feel most valued when we have truly helped someone. As you embrace these strengths, also make sure to:

- Take initiative.
- Practice flexibility.
- Approach confrontation constructively.
- Be direct in your interactions when necessary.
- Realize change can be healthy, and be willing to adapt.
- Consider the overall goals of your family or group, not just specific processes or procedures.

“C” personalities are compliant, competent, analytical, task-oriented, goal-oriented and introverted. Careful and logical lines of thinking drive us forward, and accuracy is a top priority. We hold high standards and value systematic approaches to problem solving. Though we thrive when given opportunities to find solutions, we tend to ignore the feelings of others and can often be critical and downright crabby. Verbalizing feelings is difficult for us, but when we are not bogged down in details and have clear-cut boundaries, we can be big assets to the team by providing calculated “reality checks.” Our biggest fear is criticism, and our need for perfection is often a weakness, as is our tendency to give in when in the midst of an argument. However, we are thorough in all activities and can bring a conscientious, even-tempered element to the team that will provide solid grounding. We value being correct. As you embrace these strengths, also make sure to:

- Be decisive when necessary.
- Cultivate personal relationships.
- Be open to others’ ideas and methods.
- Balance your focus between facts and people.
- Focus on doing the right things, not just doing things right.
- Help others accomplish their goals.

D/I

We are curious conclusers who place emphasis on the bottom line and work hard to reach our goals. We are more determined than we are inspirational, yet our high expectations and standards for ourselves and those around us typically cause us to make quite an impact, motivating others to follow us. We have an array of interests and can become distracted by taking on too many projects. We often need to focus, prioritize, and simply slow down. Because we thrive on activity and forward motion, we like to accomplish tasks through a large number of people.

Joshua (Joshua 1), Noah (Genesis 6-9), Sarah (Genesis 16, 1 Peter 3:6)

D/S

We are achievers with an ability to persevere. We are more active than passive, but possess a kind of calm sensitivity and steadiness that makes us good leaders. We seem to be people-oriented but can easily be dominant and decisive when it comes to tasks and project planning. We strive to accomplish goals with fierce determination that comes from a strong internal drive, but we could benefit from contemplative and conservative thinking as well as spending more time focusing on relationships.

Daniel (Daniel 1-6), Job (Job 1:5, James 5:11), Martha (Luke 10:38-42)

D/C

We are challengers that can either be determined students or defiant critics. Being in charge is important to us, yet we care little about what others think as long as we get the job done. We have a great deal of foresight and examine every avenue to find the best solution. We prefer to work alone. Though we fear failure and lack of influence, we are motivated by challenges and can often be excellent administrators. We can benefit from learning to relax and paying more attention to people.

Malachi (Malachi 4), Nathan (2 Samuel 12:1-13), Nahum (Nahum 1-3)

I/D

We are persuaders who are outgoing and energetic. We enjoy large groups and use our power of influence to attain respect and convince people to follow our lead. Sometimes we can be viewed as fidgety and nervous, but it comes from our need to be a part of challenges that have variety, freedom, and mobility. We could benefit from learning to look before we leap and spending more time being studious and still. We make inspiring leaders and know how to get results from and through people.

John the Baptist (Luke 3), Peter (Matthew 16 and 26, Acts 3), Rebekah (Genesis 24)

I/S

We are influential counselors who love people, and it's no surprise that people love us. We live to please and serve, and tend to be good listeners. Looking good and encouraging others is important to us, as is following through and being obedient. We often lack in the area of organization and can be more concerned with the people involved than we are with the task at hand. However, we can be center stage or behind the scenes with equal effectiveness, and we shine when it comes to influencing and helping others.

Barnabas (Acts 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 Kings 19, 2 Kings 2-3), Nicodemus (John 3, 7, 19)

I/C

We are inspiring yet cautious assessors who are excellent communicators through the combination of concerned awareness and appreciation of people. We excel in determining ways to improve production. We tend to be impatient and critical, and can also be overly persuasive and too consumed by the desire to win. We like to work inside the box, and we could benefit from trying new things and caring less about what others think. This personality type often possesses a gift for teaching; we are generally dependable when it comes to paying attention to details and getting the job done.

Miriam (Exodus 15-21), Ezra (Ezra 7-8), Shunammite Woman (2 Kings 4:8-37)

S/D

We are quiet leaders who can be counted on to get the job done. We perform better in small groups and do not enjoy speaking in front of crowds. Though we can be soft and hard-hearted at the same time, we enjoy close relationships with people, being careful not to dominate them. Challenges motivate us, especially ones that allow us to take a systematic approach. We tend to be determined, persevering through time and struggles. We benefit from encouragement and positive relationships.

Martha (Luke 10:38-42), Job (Job 1:5, James 5:11)

S/I

We are inspirational counselors who exhibit warmth and sensitivity. Tolerant and forgiving, we have many friends because we accept and represent others well. Our social nature and desire to be likable and flexible makes us inclined to be overly tolerant and non-confrontational. We will benefit from being more task-oriented and paying more attention to detail. Kind and considerate, we include others and inspire people to follow us. Words of affirmation go a long way with us, and with the right motivation, we can be excellent team players.

Mary Magdalene (Luke 7:36-47), Barnabas (Acts 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 Kings 19, 2 Kings 2-13)

S/C

We are diplomatic and steady, as well as detail-oriented. Stable and contemplative, we like to weigh the evidence and discover the facts to come to a logical conclusion. More deliberate, we prefer to take our time, especially when the decision involves others. Possible weaknesses include being highly sensitive and unable to handle criticism, and we also need to be aware of the way we treat others. Operating best in precise and cause-worthy projects, we can be a peacemaker; this makes us a loyal team member and friend.

Moses (Exodus 3, 4, 20, 32), John (John 19:26-27), Eliezer (Genesis 24)

C/I

We are attentive to the details. We tend to impress others by doing things right and stabilizing situations. Not considered aggressive or pushy, we enjoy both large and small crowds. Though we work well with people, we are sometimes too sensitive to what others think about us and our work. We could benefit from being more assertive and self-motivated. Often excellent judges of character, we easily trust those who meet our standards. We are moved by genuine and enthusiastic approval as well as concise and logical explanations.

Miriam (Exodus 15-21, Numbers 12:1-15), Ezra (Ezra 7, 8)

C/S

We are systematic and stable. We tend to do one thing at a time—and do it right. Reserved and cautious, we would rather work behind the scenes to stay on track; however, we seldom take risks or try new things and naturally dislike sudden changes in our environments. Precisionists to the letter, we painstakingly require accuracy and fear criticism, which we equate to failure. Diligent workers, our motivation comes from serving others.

Esther (Esther 4), Zechariah (Luke 1), Joseph (Matthew 1:1-23)

C/D

We are cautious and determined designers who are consistently task-oriented and very aware of problems. Sometimes viewed as insensitive, we do care about individual people but have a difficult time showing it. We often feel we are the only ones who can do the job the way it needs to be done, but because of our administrative skills, we are able to bring plans for change and improvements to fruition. We have a tendency to be serious and could benefit from being more optimistic and enthusiastic. Despite our natural drive to achieve, we should concentrate on developing healthy relationships and simply loving people.

Bezalel (Exodus 35:30-36, 8, 37:1-9), Jochebed (Exodus 1:22-2:4), Jethro (Exodus 2,18)

USING YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

Congratulations on discovering your spiritual gifts! God uniquely created you and gave you these gifts for a reason. Now that you've identified how He has gifted you, your next step is to learn how you can use those gifts in fulfilling the Great Commission.

PERSONALITY ASSESSMENT

The following pages are a written version of the personality profile and spiritual gifts assessment that you completed online during the Growth Track.

Step 1: Answer each question under sections 1–4 by circling the number that best describes you. Allow yourself two to three minutes to complete this step before moving on to other steps.

Step 2: Add the total of circled numbers for the five statements under each section. Write each total on the indicated total line for each section.

Step 3: Identify the group with the highest totaled number and the second highest totaled number to discover your dominant personality traits.

Box 1 = “D” personality

Box 2 = “I” personality

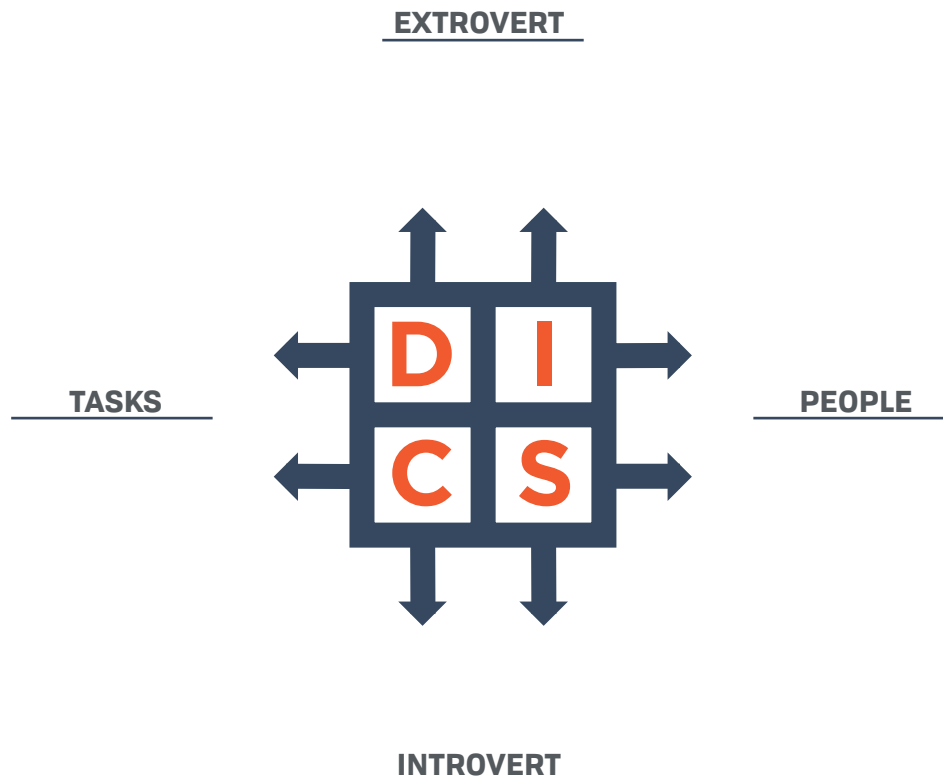

Box 3 = “S” personality

Box 4 = “C” personality

Write your predominant personality traits sequence in the top right hand corner (DI, ID, SC, CD, etc.).

Step 4: On the diagram below, starting with the top line and moving clockwise, write extrovert (DI), people (IS), introvert (CS) and task (DC).

Step 5: Read the description of your most predominant personality trait (D, I, S, C) and the description of your two highest personality traits together (DI, ID, SC, CD, etc.).
